

WOYC April 13th-19th

Connors Centennial Celebrates Children

Why My Teacher is Special.....(provide authentic child responses below in the boxes to the sentence starters. Complete the information below and obtain parental signature (original signature only). May be given in person to Jan Cowan at Connors State College, in an envelope with "Special Teacher/Jan Cowan" on envelope. You may also mail to me at 201 Court Street, Muskogee, OK 77701.

My Teacher shows she cares when:

My teacher teaches me about:

My teacher is special to me because:

Child's First Name (ONLY): _____ Age of child: _____

Submitted by: _____

Place where child's teacher works: _____

Responses will be collected until March 7th, 2008. Sentence Starter responses will be selected by the Child Development instructor and the SECC Coordinator to be published in our Centennial book.

I understand that only my child's first name will be used for this submission for the "Week of the Young Child"/ "Connors Centennial Celebrates Children" events. I agree that if my child's responses are selected and published to relinquish all rights

Parent Signature: _____ Date: _____

Would you like to know if your child's responses were selected? We will be happy to notify the person who submitted this form. Books will be available for purchase and proceeds will go toward the Child Development Foundation Fund which goes toward educational purposes. Thank you for allowing us to celebrate teachers of young children and the many ways in which they are special!

yes

no